Murphy Canada To Build Gas Stations At Select Wal-Mart Canada Stores; Customer Service, Convenience and Savings Driving Forces for Business Agreement

February 12, 2002 4:34 PM ET

CALGARY, Alberta, Feb 12, 2002 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Murphy Canada, Ltd., an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Murphy Oil Corporation (NYSE:MUR), announced that it has signed an agreement with Wal-Mart Canada to build gasoline stations at select Wal-Mart stores across the country. The Company expects to open approximately five to seven gas stations in the second half of 2002 at existing Wal-Mart stores with locations to be confirmed later this year. Expansion of the program will take place gradually following 2002.

Herb Fox, executive vice president of Murphy Oil Corporation, applauded the move, saying, "Wal-Mart and Murphy have worked together for the past five years on bringing everyday low prices to retail gasoline consumers at hundreds of stations in other markets. This agreement means that Murphy Canada will now be able to provide high-quality gasoline and diesel fuel to Canadian customers with the convenience, super service, and significant cost savings for which the Murphy and Wal-Mart relationship is famous."

Fox said that the new Murphy Canada stations would be built in the parking lots of select Wal-Mart stores. "We are excited to team with Canada's top retailer to provide customers with the one-stop-shopping convenience and cost savings the new Murphy Canada stations will bring to the marketplace." Fox said.

"We are committed to continuously finding new ways of bringing everyday value to Canadians," said Mario Pilozzi, President and CEO of Wal-Mart Canada. "These new Murphy gas stations will give customers who are making gasoline purchases access to the everyday low prices they have come to expect from Wal-Mart."

Murphy Oil Corporation is a worldwide integrated oil company, with downstream operations in Canada, the United Kingdom, and the United States.

Wal-Mart Canada is based in Mississauga, Ontario and operates 196 stores nationwide.
